I'm not Wells Fargo so I can't express myself the way I'd like, too. But maybe these few words will mean something to you.

(1) "There's no wings on my angle, but you're still an angle to me".

(2) I love you for a hundred thousands reasons, but most of all I love you Cause you're you.

All my love,
James Gentry.

sugar is sweet
and so are you.
I guess that is why I love you,
and have since the basketball season of 1950. But I didn't have any luck until Sept 7,
"Janella, are I & Your lover, Crazy?"? James Gentry.

Jonella,
We have had fun
this year in Study Hall, etc.. Hope you succeed in everything you undertake to do. Remember me and I shall never forget you.
Love ya.

Pocahontas High School

POCAHONTAS, VIRGINIA

presents:

THE Tomahawk

Tazewell County Public Library
Pocahontas Branch

FOREWORD

Closing this, our Senior year at beloved Pocahontas High School, we, the members of the class of '51, send this year book to the press with pride and love for it and those who will own its copies. We believe this book to be a symbol of our endeavorment and devotion that we, the class of '51, will leave behind us to live only in our memories. With the growing pain of sadness in thought of the graduation soon to come upon us, we sincerely hope that God will be with us and guide us as we leave these memorable walls to go out into the world of trials and tribulations to build our lives, our homes, and our eternity.

ADVERTISEMENTS

With our coming departure from these beloved halls, we, the Senior Class of '51, dedicate this year book to both Mr. Carter and to the boys and girls who have left P. H. S. to serve in the United States Armed Forces.

As a token of our deep appreciation for his undying efforts to better our school in every way, for his production of a champion girls' basketball team; and for his help in making our annual possible; we affectionately dedicate the 1951 Tomahawk to Mr. R. T. Carter, Principal.

Also, we, the Senior Class of '51, dedicate this, the 1951 Tomahawk to the many soldiers in the Armed Forces who are paying the supreme sacrifice of giving their lives on the Korean battlefield that we, plus the millions of others like us, may enjoy our freedoms in these United States of America.

• Senior Class Prophecy •

Having nothing to do after graduation, I decided to become a "Fortune Teller". My first customer was none other than Juanita Farmer. Not recognizing me in my Gypsy attire, she handed me a paper containing the names of all my classmates and myself. She asked me to tell her what each would be doing ten years from that day. Looking into my fifteen cent crystal ball, I actually saw, to my surprise:

Lindy Carroll as the government teacher in the new Pocahontas High School, with Thomas Bailey as his star pupil.

Cecil L. Gregory in the marine band. Instead of playing the drum, he's carrying it while another guy beats it.

The "Flea" Theater, owner Ruth Wyatt, is now showing Dewey Jennings as the new Roy Rogers with James Carter as the new Gabby Hayes.

Bobby Hendrick as an organ grinder and wait! that's not a monkey that's Charles Cox. Doesn't he look cute in his little red hat?

Nancy Saunders driving the Greyhound bus from Pocahontas to Boissevain.

I hear music, it's none other than Donald Hess and Barbara French singing on the Grand Old Opera.

Three old maids Pearl Cheek, Phyllis Huffman, and Edna Graham.

Garland Bowman owns a garlic farm. In the field stands Eddie Adams. He certainly makes a nice scare crow.

Window Washers are Ila Jean Murray, Ruth Crewey and Flora Lee McCormick.

The custodian of the new Pocahontas High School is John Griffith. The scrub women are Earleen Bowman, Irene Graham, Freda Potter, and Gracie Bostic Pickett.

Is that an Indian? No. It's James Levi dressed in a clown suit.

Hazel Belcher and Mary Lee Gullion are driving school buses in North Carolina.

Robert Cox and Jerry Luke are driving garbage trucks.

Barbara and Mary Welch are raising flowers in Canada.

Betty Sue Carter is selling pencils on the street corner.

Billy Higginbotham and Lennis Tabor are sweeping streets, and John Davidson is loafing on the streets (with a tin cup).

Doris Odham and Martha Perry are building pig-pens in Florida.

Eleanor Carter and Patty Patrick are stowaways on a battleship.

Two women running for President are Greta Draughn and Charlotte Ross.

"Lion Tamers" are Betsy Sanderson and Orpha Welch.

Sellers of Womens' Hats are James O'Brien and Elwood Young.

Mary Jo Hrametz and Margaret Johnson are teaching Norma Reynolds and Juanita Lail to box.

"You've left some one out", Juanita said. "What about Hazel Patterson and me?" You'll still be asking questions" and I added, removing my false face, "I'll still be making up answers to them."

Hazel Patterson '50-'51

• Senior Class Will •

We, the Senior Class of 1951, in a sound and declaring state of mind, do declare this to be our last will and testament. We will the following:

To our principal, we leave our appreciation for his time and effort to make these four years filled with joy and happiness.

To our faculty that has worked so faithfully, we wish the best of luck. We will what is left of P. H. S. to the Seniors of '52.

I, Eddie Adams, do will my athletic ability to anyone who needs it.

I, Garland Bowman, do will my garlic to Mr. Kovacs.

I, James Carter, do will my talking ability to anyone with a small mouth.

I, Charles Cox, do will my short and slender figure to John Sabo.

I, Robert Cox, do will my job as a bus driver to Jimmy Shanahan.

I, John Davidson, do will my tuba to anyone that is windy enough to play it.

I, C. L. Gregory, do will my singing ability to Carolyn Murray.

I, John Griffith, do will my International Relations grades to anyone who wants to take International Relations.

I, Donald Hess, do will all of my good times at P. H. S. to my sister, Shirley.

I, Bill Higginbotham, do will my football uniform to anyone that's not man enough to receive one.

I, Dewey Jennings, do will my books to anyone that will use them, because I didn't.

We, James O'Brien and James Levi, do will the time we spent in the halls talking to our girl friends to Don Hudson and Paul Adams.

I, Jerry Luke, do will my two front teeth to anyone that happens to get them knocked out in the next football season.

I, Lennis Tabor, do will my curly hair to Ernest Gillispie.

I, Elwood Young, do will my curly hair to Mr. Dishman, he needs it.

I, Hazel Belcher, do will my troubles to anyone that doesn't have any.

I, Gracie Bostic, do will my quiet ways to Dorothy Ranger.

I, Earleen Bowman, do will all of my boyfriends to any girl that thinks she is woman enough to get them.

I, Betty Sue Carter, do will my position as Beta Club President to some lucky Junior Beta member.

I, Eleanor Carter, do will my past four years of High School to any oncoming freshman.

I, Ruth Crewey, do will my ability to skip school to Joelene Thompson.

I, Pearl Cheek, do will my blue eyes to Paul Cox.

I, Greta Draughn, do will my manners to anyone that needs them.

I, Juanita Farmer, do will my good grades and Beta membership to my brother, Jimmy.

I, Barbara French, do will my basketball ability to the team of '52 and '53.

I, Edna Graham, do will my giggles to Kenneth Franklin.

I, Irene Sanders Graham, do will my four years of High School to my niece, Elsie Asbury.

I, Mary Lee Gullion, do will my blond hair to anyone who has to bleach theirs.

I, Josephine Hrametz, do will my being tardy for school to Jack Ramsey.

I, Phyllis Huffman, do will my government book back to Mr. Butt.

I, Margaret Johnson, do will my little feet to Donald Wright.

I, Juanita Lail, do will all the boys to anyone, because I don't want any.

I, Flora Lee McCormick, do will nothing. I've willed all I have to Hubert.

I, Ila Jean Murray, do will my slenderness to anyone that's trying to diet.

I, Doris Odham, do will my good grades to my sisters, Carol and Shirley.

I, Patty Patrick, do will all the boys because I have mine.

I, Hazel Patterson, do will my good times to my best girlfriends in Machine Shop Hollow.

I, Martha Perry, do will my dark complexion to Toby Arrington.

I, Freda Potter, do will my last name to people that call me Porter.

I, Norma Reynolds, do will all my jokes that I know to Mr. Harloe's Science Class.

I, Charlotte Ross, do will my ears to a poor listener, cause I have excellent hearing.

I, Nancy Saunders, do will my ambition to become a doctor to anyone who is not planning on getting married.

I, Betsy Sanderson, do will my position as biggest talker of Pocahontas to Jackie Ramsey.

I, Barbara Welch, do will my ability to write love letters to anyone who doesn't have anyone to write to.

I, Mary Welch, do will all of my boyfriends to anyone who wants them.

I, Ruth Wyatt, do will my flirting ability to anyone who doesn't have any boy friends.

We declare this to be the last will and testament of the Senior Class of 1951.

The successful completion of any task gives a person a sense of pride and dignity that comes to all who are worthy.

McLains Business College is now completing its eleventh year of success in training young people of this section for the better type of positions.

Pocahontas graduates have contributed much to our success — they have been among our very best. This page of advertising is an expression of our appreciation for the fine young men and women who have chosen our school for their business training.

The demand for our graduates is far beyond our ability to meet.

Hi ya gal. Remember all the fun we have had together. Honey child also remember the little fight (not real) Best of luck to my little neighbor. He'll have a lot of fun next year. Best of luck to a sweet kid!

Love always,

Patsy

Jo,

Well there not too much to say except its really swell having a friend like you! And in the coming years I hope we'll be better friends. Well have to be saying so long I'll see you next year. Best of luck!

Love,

Pat
